Water garden plants do not release any plants or animals to lakes or streams. This plant may be INVASIVE if it reaches lakes or streams.

DO YOUR PART— Keep this plant contained in your water garden.

Invasive plants and animals threaten the ecological balance of our natural waters. While not all exotic plants are cold-hardy in our climate zone, some are invasive and will cause serious problems if they reach our lakes, streams, ponds, or wetlands.